The publisher shall grant authors 55% off the retail price for books ordered directly from Master Press.

Master Press agrees to pay to the Author a royalty for each Book sold in the amount of 55% off the selling book price after wholesale book sales from resellers via catalog, bookstores (Amazon, Ingram, Barnes and Noble).

For example, if a book retails for $10.00, our wholesale resellers will be able to purchase this book at the same 55% wholesale price. That means that there would be a $4.50 profit ($$10.00 - $5.50 = \4.50). If the book costs $2.50 to print, the profitability of the book is $2.00 ($$4.50 - $2.50 = \2.00 profit). in this example would be $1.10. Keep in mind that these royalties are above and beyond any book sales that you might make through your own channels of distribution.

The publisher may occasionally offer discounts up to 65% off the retail price for bulk orders. Authors shall receive no royalties on copies they purchase from Master Press. Royalties are paid only on copies sold to bookstores, libraries, or directly to consumers.
